

Love Nature

Nature
When first I came to Lucan,
40 years ago,
Or more.
The treetops looked like a carpet,
in a Navan carpet store.

The colours all around me,
I thought
I was in heaven
I learned its name meant home of the elms.

The natural beauty of Lucan, never ceases to amaze
from our friend Anna Livia to our mascot Bertie A Heron.

There's Edmondsbury,
St Catherine's ,
Lucan Demense,
and so much more.

So instead of sitting there worrying,
Wash your face and get out that door.

The cherry and apple blossoms,
The gentle sounds, of the babbling brooks and robins,

There's nothing better than nature,
To give your spirit a lift,
and nature is all around us,
It's just a natural gift.
